From Saturday November 17, to Tuesday November 20, 1750.

Naples, November 3.

ON the 28th past the King's two Galliots, which went lately on a Cruize against the Corsairs of Barbary, returned into Port, and brought with them a Tripolitan Ship, which they took during their Cruize in the Sicilian Sea. The Count de Monasterol, his Sardinian Majesty's Ambassador to this Court, having received his Letters of Revocation, and taken his Audience of Leave of their Majesties, set out last Week from hence for Rome, on his Way to Turin; before his Departure, the King presented him with a Diamond Ring of great Value. The Court is expected here to Day from Portici, in order to celebrate To morrow the Feast of St. Charles, his Majesty's Name Day, for which great Preparations are making.

Petersbourg, Nov. 6. Several Councils have been lately held at Court, in one of which it was resolved, that a considerable Body of her Imperial Majesty's Forces, which are now quartered in the Ukraine, shall immediately join those of the King and Republick of Poland, and act in Concert with them, in order to put a Stop to the many Outrages and Cruelties that have for some Time past been committed by several large Bodies of Heyducks.

Venice, Nov. 13. M. Chavigny, the French Ambassador, arrived here on Monday last; but being ill of a Fever, he has not as yet notified his Arrival to the College and Foreign Ministers.

Vienna, Nov. 14. The Empress Queen of Hungary has lately ordered the Regiment of Dragoons of Preysing to be disbanded. Engineer-General de Bohn, who has been to visit the Fortifications of Hungary and Esclavonia, is arrived here from Peter-Waradin, where he has given Orders for the carrying on of the new Fortifications of that Place. Their Imperial Majesties propose setting out To-morrow for Closter Neubourg, in order to celebrate the Feast of St. Leopold; and the Archduke Joseph, and most of the Foreign Ministers are to accompany their Majesties on this Occasion.

[Price Two-pence.]

Turin, Nov. 14. On Tuesday last being the Anniversary of the King of Great Britain's Birth, the same was celebrated here by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to this Court; on which Occasion his Lordship gave a sumptuous Entertainment to the Foreign Ministers; at which were present all the English now residing at Turin.

Warsaw, Nov. 14. By some Dispatches received from the Castellan of Wislitz, dated from Wisniowicz the first of this Month, we have an Account, that the Plague has broke out again in Moldavia, and that several Villages in the Neighbourhood of Kaminieck are actually infected with it.

Copenhagen, Nov. 16. The King has declared his Intention of hunting no more this Season in the Forest of Jagersbourg. On Tuesday last the Queen had a Drawing-Room for the first Time since her coming to the Winter-Palace, and has ordered the same to be continued as usual at this Time of the Year. On Friday Morning last his Majesty went to the Dock-yard of the West-India Company, and saw two new Ships, named the Caroline and the William, launched from off the Stocks; with which his Majesty was greatly pleased; and the rather, as no Accident of any Kind happened. The Queen Dowager intends to set out next Week for Hirscholm, where she proposes to stay the greatest Part of the Winter. Yesterday Morning Count Schulembourg arrived here from the Tour he has taken through Germany, and last Night he had the Honour to be presented to the King, and met with a most gracious Reception.

Dresden, Nov. 17. The Weather is set in very severe in this Country; and as the Ground is now too hard for Hunting, their Majesties propose leaving St. Hubertsbourg on Tuesday next with the whole Court, in order to return to this City for the Winter.

Dusseldorp, Nov. 20. This Morning died here General Count de Grammont, Councillor of State and of the Conferences, and Master of the Horse to his Serene Highness the Elector Palatine

Palatine. We learn from Manheim, that Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts propoſes to ſet out from thence on the 28th Inſtant, in order to accompany the Spouſe of Prince Clement of Bavaria to Munich, from whence he propoſes taking a Tour to Rome.

Berlin, Nov. 21. The King came hither a few Days ago from Potzdam, and gave Audience to ſome Foreign Miniſters; after which his Majeſty paid a Viſit to the Margravine of Bareith his Siſter, who is perfectly recovered from her late Indiſpoſition, and propoſes, as 'tis now ſaid, to ſet out ſhortly on her Return to the Court of Bareith. The Day after his Majeſty dined with the Queen-Mother, and ſet out the ſame Evening for Potzdam. Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau is arrived at Potzdam from Brandenbourg; as is alſo Prince Frederick Eugene of Wirtemberg from Stolpe; Major General de Hautcharmoy, Governor of Brieg, from Sileſia; and M. Klingraff from Hanover. On the 16th Inſtant died here the Baron de Borſtel, in the 58th Year of his Age; he was one of the King's Chamberlains, Privy Councillor of War, and of the Finances and Domaines, Knight of the Order of St. John, and Hereditary Lord of Weſter Egeln, Dobritz and Ferwitz.

Bruſſels, Nov. 23. On Thurſday laſt the Empreſs's Name-day was celebrated here with great Solemnity. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Governor General of the Low Countries, is returned hither from the Tour he lately made to Ter Vuren. 'Tis aſſured, that the Project for rebuilding the ancient Palace, which was burnt down, will ſhortly be put in Execution.

Hambourg, Nov. 24. The young Count Schonburn, Nephew to the Elector of Triers, and Heir to the late Biſhop of Wurtzbourg his Uncle, who travels with a very numerous Attendance, is at preſent in this City.

Hague, Nov. 26. On Friday laſt his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange aſſiſted for four Hours at the Aſſembly of the States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland; and on Saturday the ſaid States ſeparated for ſome Time. The new Company of Grenadiers, which has been lately raiſed, in order to be placed at the Head of the Dutch Guards, arrived here a few Days ago from Loo; and having paſſed in Review before the Prince of Orange, who was greatly pleaſed with its Appearance, has ſince taken the Station for which it was raiſed.

Hague, Nov. 27. The States General received, on Monday laſt, a Letter from the French King, by which they were informed, that his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had thought proper to recall the Abbe de la Ville, his late Ambaſſador to the Republick; which Letter was delivered to the Preſident of the Week by M. Chiquet, who at the ſame Time preſented a Memorial from the Abbe de la Ville, by which that Miniſter took Leave of their High Mightineſſes, who came to a Reſolution to grant him the uſual Preſent of a Golden Chain and Medal, of the Value of 1300 Florins, with one of 300 for M. Chiquet his Secretary. Yeſterday in the Afternoon the Marquis de St. Conteſt, the new French Ambaſſador, waited in Ceremony on the Prince Stadtholder, who received him at the Foot of the great Stair Caſe, and reconducted him to the ſame Place. And this Day his Serene Highneſs returned the Ambaſſador his Viſit, in great Pomp: His Excellency received his Serene Highneſs at the Coach Door, to which he likewiſe reconducted him at his Departure.

Whitehall, November 13, 1750.

Whereas Mr. Richard Newman, of Weſtham Abby in the County of Eſſex, Callicoe Printer, received by the General Poſt, on the 2d of this Inſtant November, an anonymous Letter, dated the 30th of October, threatning the Lives and Houſes of him, and all Callicoe Printers, and others, if they do not pay off their Iriſh Servants in one Month from the Date thereof, as the Engliſhmen are ſtarving for want of Work, and adding, that ſome of them would meet at the Swan at Stratford every Sunday till the 30th of November, and therefore, that the aboveſaid Gentlemen ſhould beware: His Majeſty is therefore pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon concerned in writing and ſending the ſaid Letter, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BEDFORD.

And for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing the ſaid Letter, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, (except the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Rich. Newman.
